To insure publication the following Sunday it will be necessary for all accounts of society events to be forwarded to this day night to be in the Eagle office Thursday night.

All events, with the one exception of those on Saturday night, should be in by 9 a. m. Saturday at the latest.

SUNDAY

GIBBENS-MACAULEY.

Surrounded by their immediate relatives, Mr. William St. Clair Gibbens and Miss Virginia Ellen Macauley, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, last Sunday evening, by Rev. S. E. Turner, of Eldorado, Okla., at their new home, 1222 McLean avenue.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal couple entered the parlor, where they were met by Rev. Turner, who is an uncle of the groom. The beautiful and impressive service of the Methodist Episcopal church was used.

The bride was handsomely attired in a tailored suit of blue broadcloth, and the conventional black of the groom was enhanced by a happy smile.

Mrs. Gibbens is the daughter of J. S. Macauley of the Macauley Commission Company of this city, and Mr. Gibbens is the son of W. W. Gibbens of the Union Mills, whose headquarters are at Clearwater. Both young people have lived in the city many years and have a wide circle of friends, who extend hearty congratulations and wishes for a happy, prosperous future.

The groom is an employee of the Pacific, and it was his intention to surprise his fellow-employees, and keep quiet about his approaching marriage, but the surprise was very greatly turned on him when, on the evening previous to the wedding, he stopped at his new home at 1222 McLean avenue, to see that everything was in readiness for their occupancy, and found a handsome-looking chair with a card attached bearing the name of the bride in the company room. He found that it was useless to try to keep a secret of that kind from any of the "gang" in his department.

The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents, consisting of china, cut glass, silver, linen, clocks, rugs, pictures, two checks for $300 and numerous other articles which, added to the already cozy home that had been prepared and in which the wedding ceremony was performed.

After the shower of congratulations and best wishes which followed the ceremony, the guests, led by Mr. and Mrs. Gibbens, repaired to the dining-room, where a dainty wedding supper was served, after which the remainder of the evening passed with merry conversation.

THE "L. L. S." RECEPTION AT MOUNT CARMEL.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season occurred at Mount Carmel Sunday evening when the members of the First Academic and Eighth grade, numbering thirty-five, gave their long-planned reception to the other students of the academy. Unique invitations having been issued the previous Sunday the interim afforded ample time for the prospective guests to exercise their imaginative powers as to what novel feature of amusement the ingenious Freshmen and Eighties might be devising. Though carousal conjectures were rife, their most sanguine expectations were more than realized that evening. The spacious auditorium had been transformed into a veritable fairy bower, the pillars garlanded with ferns, palms and other plants arranged in graceful profusion. The intended effect was that of a lawn party, and the young ladies' efforts to make it such were indeed crowned with success. During the evening the following delightful program was rendered by members of the classes:

Lutalip Overture (Duo).....

Misses Mary George and Bertha Stackman.

Recitation—"Bernardo del Carpi".....

Miss Agnes Soudan.

Vocal Solo—"Shall I be forgotten".....

Miss Sallie Shive.

Intermission.

Harp Solo—"Angel's Serenade".....

Miss Irene Solomon.

Reading.....

Miss Maude Dean.

The Singing School.....

"L. L. S."

Piano Solo—"Thorns and Roses".....

Miss Georgia Lantz.

Posing.....

(a) "American Beauty".....

Miss Audie Rose.

(b) "Indian Girl".....

Miss Lulu Soudan.

(c) "Maidenhood".....

of Mrs. Dorsey.

During the intermissions the guests were allowed to "try their luck" at various games of chance, for which tasteful prizes were awarded. The most amusing feature, perhaps of the evening was an "auction sale"—dainty little bags (filled with beans) furnishing an almost inexhaustible mint for the enthusiastic buyers. Many of the daintily wrapped articles proved ludicrous in the extreme. After this excitement had subsided, much to the surprise of the guests they were ushered to the dining hall, where the hostesses served ice cream and cake.

Great credit is due the members of the "L. L. S." for their perfect management of the evening's entertainment.

A LEAP YEAR BIRTHDAY.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Mrs. Chas. Lemcke at her home, on the 24th day of February.

This being her birthday, and not having had one for eight years, her friends very kindly remembered her. The time was spent with conversation and games and later a very elaborate luncheon was served.

Those ladies present were: Mrs. J. W. Clayton, Mrs. A. W. Smith, Mrs. Louisa Gertie, Mrs. Katie Holstead, Mrs. Seaver, Mrs. Wm. Goshorn, Mrs. Nitschke, Mrs. Katie Kayser, Mrs. F. A. Nitschke and Miss Katie Lemcke.

A COMMERCIAL CLUB DINNER.

A dinner was given Monday evening at the Commercial club, at which the following people composed the party: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Ashton, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Harby, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Amidon, Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Oldham, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aylesbury, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Wheeler, Mrs. C. G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Stocker.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AFFAIR.

Mrs. G. W. Cassidy entertained her Sunday-school class of the Baptist church at her home on North Topeka avenue, on Monday evening. After a business conference, the class enjoyed a tasty pull. Mrs. Cassidy was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Peck and Miss Irene Peck. The guests were: Messrs. Ernest Smith, Raymond Brimmer, Chester Brimmer, Eldon Brimmer, Iva Wyckoff, W. E. Phillips, Frank Purdy, H. M. Smith, Mr. Turner, Arthur Cunningham, Will Thomas, N. D. Thompson, George Bailey, Robert Matthews, Herbert Gates, Chester Tunnell, Don Camp.

LEAP YEAR PARTY.

The affair given by the Misses Horner, Vincent, Roberta Vincent, Dodge, Gordon, Waggoner, Mary Waggoner, McCauley, Acken and Simpson, at the home of Mrs. G. W. Cassidy, was a most delightful occasion.

The invitations were issued for the party to the ladies requesting each to take advantage of the year and the gentleman assumed the character of the weaker sister.

The home of Miss Gordon was elaborately decorated with hearts in red and white. The entrance of the hall and white ribbons hung from chandeliers and presented a most charming picture.

The games of the evening were very dainty and becoming. Miss Horner was a handsome dotted organ; Miss Vincent, light blue silk; Miss Roberta Vincent, white over light blue; Miss Dodge, linen colored dress; Miss Gordon, blue figured organ; Miss Waggoner, black silk; Miss Mary Waggoner, white Russian lawn; Miss McCauley, white Swiss; Miss Acken, figured dress over lavender; Miss Simpson, Persian lawn.

The guests were entertained by a hunt for candy hearts hidden in every conceivable place. Every three hearts found entitled the finder to a shot with bow and arrow. A heart target was held in the hand of a beautiful cupid drawn by the artistic hand of Miss Elva Harde.

Mr. John Staley won the prize as an archer and received a heart-shaped box of bonbons. Mr. Edwin Hyster received the lucky prize, a package of chewing gum. The gentlemen deserve great credit for carrying out their part to such a nicety. Many carried flowers tied with flowing ribbon. Powder bags, fans and other female accessories were in evidence.

Messrs. Garver, Wilcox, Misses Roberta Vincent and Mabel Acken delighted the company with the Arturine quartette. Hearts with arrows were fired for refreshment purposes. Miss Marie, Miss Stry and Messrs. Murray and Homer Camley served. The guests were:

Messrs. Triplett, Hubl, Garver, Jas. Garver, Chas. Garver, Wheeler, Hone, Symser, Snyder, Will Jones, Jones, Dunbar, Nicktrieb, Lawhead, Maxwell, Ross Maxwell, Wilcox, Staley, Ed Staley, Vincent, Hargrove, Dickie, Hoffman, Hyster, Gertrude, McKenzie, Burbank, Narcosis, Williams, Charneck, Keller, Herbert, Misses Dodge, Gordon, Simpson, Elizabeth Staley, Kincaid, Fordyce, M. Waggoner, McCauley, Ethel McCauley, Roberta Vincent, Townsend, Evans, Norcross, Staley, Mrs. McKenzie, Haythorne, Maxwell, Gertrude Maxwell, Hattie McCauley, Anna Jones, Preston, Weigand, Anna Weigand, Horner, Brown, and Vincent.

ELLIS-WILLIAMS.

After the ceremonies were performed at the Ellis-Williams wedding last Monday evening at the South Emporia Avenue M. E. church a vocal program was served at the home of the bride's parents, 322 South

Emporia avenue, which was a sumptuous affair and highly enjoyed by the guests. For this supper, which was given in honor of the newly married couple, the dining room was attractively decorated with pink and white bunting and with loops and tufts suspended from the four corners extending to the chandelier. The chair in which the bride was seated was also arranged with this bunting. The room presented an admirable appearance and, with all the merry guests making the occasion as jubilant for the bride and groom as possible the scene was one of gratifying aspect.

The parlor was also exquisitely ornamented with ferns and evergreens which made a royal reception room and a congenial apartment in which to rejoice satisfactorily in the festivities and jollities of the event.

The table was beautified with large bouquets of pink and white carnations which flowers and colors were predominant throughout the affair. The name of each guest was written on a card and placed on his or her plate. The luncheon consisted of three courses and was prepared by Mesdames Ella Root and J. B. Dutton. Misses Hazel Dutton and Mabel Root acted as waitresses. Among the delectable dishes served were fruits, roast turkey, cranberry sauce, ice cream and cake.

Throughout the ceremony and the supper the bride was attired in a white dress and held in her hand a bouquet of white roses, and the bridesmaid was dressed in blue and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was neatly dressed in a black business suit and the best man also wore a dark suit.

At the wedding in the church Mrs. S. W. Kramer, the sister of the groom, and whose home is in Chicago, rendered Mesdames the appropriate marriage of the bride and groom. The church was filled with friends and the ceremony which is known as the ring ceremony, was successful and quite fascinating. Presents were given to the happy couple from all sides and were quite numerous. Some gave valuable articles of silverware, others china ware and cut glass and some gave furniture, rugs and pictures. It is said that Mr. and Mrs. Ellis received almost enough gifts to start in to housekeeping without having to buy anything scarcely.

The guests at the supper were Messrs. and Mesdames R. W. Williams, Albert Ellis, E. C. Harris, E. C. Pollard, Levi Horner, J. E. Day, Clarence Goodnight, James Deardoff, James Albert Ellis of Wichita and Mr. and Mrs. J. McLaughlin of Norwich, Mrs. S. W. Kramer of Chicago, Misses Mabel Dutton, Louise McGee, Nina Goodwin, Hazel Dutton, Ethel Harris, Lizzie Nolan, Lulu Williams, Mollie Stanley and Mesdames J. Nolan, L. Root, J. Dutton.

OPEN MEETING OF HYPATIA.

This session of the club on Monday afternoon was rather crowded with good things. It is to be regretted that Mrs. Wagner's interesting informal talk on the Crafts and Arts of the American Indian should have come so early as to be interrupted by the assembling of the guests and members. Miss Cleveland's paper on Rockwood pottery had a more favorable location on the program and received the attention it justly merited. Mrs. Knapp read a paper on American Sculptors. Mrs. Harriet Jackson on American Painters, dealing at some length with George Inness and Sargent. The musical numbers were a piano solo by Miss Locke and a vocal number by Miss Jane L. James, a young girl who has only recently commenced vocal study, but who shows flattering promise.

DRAMATIC RECITAL.

A dramatic recital will be given at Fairmont college next Monday evening by Mrs. Winifred W. Metcalf, director of the department of expression at that institution. Mrs. Metcalf will be assisted by Prof. C. E. Elmer, Miss Marie Hammer and Professor Just. The program will begin at 8 o'clock and will be as follows:

1. Piano Solo, Sonata Pathétique..... Beethoven
2. Reading, The Heart of Old Hickory..... Mrs. Metcalf
3. Vocal Solo..... Selected Professor Elmer
4. (a) Scene from the London Assurance..... Boucicault
- (b) The Wonderful Tar-Baby Story..... Harris
5. Vocal Solo..... F. David
6. Court Scene from the Merchant of Venice..... Shakespeare

Mrs. Metcalf.

TUESDAY

AT CARVIN HOME.

An evening of cards, games and music was enjoyed by the guests of Miss Flot.

IT COSTS NOTHING IF IT FAILS.

Gehring & Higginson Will Make No Charge for Mi-o-na Unless It Increases Weight.

The rapidly with which people gain flesh while taking Mi-o-na is alone a sufficient reason for Gehring & Higginson making the remarkable offer they do in the following coupon:

COUPON

This coupon entitles any reader of the Eagle to have the purchase price of Mi-o-na refunded in case it does not increase the weight and cure stomach troubles. We assume all the risk, and Mi-o-na is absolutely free unless it gives satisfaction.

GEHRING & HIGGINSON.

WE TAKE ALL RISK.

"Take only one Mi-o-na tablet after each meal," says Gehring & Higginson, "and in a few days you will find digestion improving, health returning and weight increasing. We are so convinced that Mi-o-na will do this in nine cases out of ten, that although we take all the risk when we make the coupon offer, we are reasonably sure that not more than one out of twenty who use Mi-o-na will say that it has not done them wonderful good."

When buying a package of Mi-o-na, leave fifty cents on deposit as an evidence of good faith. Gehring & Higginson will give their signed receipt for the money, agreeing to return it in case you tell them that Mi-o-na has not been satisfactory. Gehring & Higginson take all the risk.

once Carvin at a function given Tuesday night at her home on North Market street. Refreshments were an important feature of the entertainment. The party consisted of the following persons: Misses Blanche Race, Nell Peverley, Sydney Clapp, Carroll Edwards, Cornelia Vail, Florence Carvin, Gail Ross and Margaret Ross; Willard Brooks, Frank Oliver, Frank Gehring, Will Smith, Arthur Peggley, Howard Carvin and Tom Griffith.

TEMPERANCE UNION WOMEN.

The Central Woman's Christian Temperance Union held a delightful parlor meeting on Tuesday at the beautiful home of Mrs. Will Stewart on Topeka avenue. Between fifty and sixty ladies were in attendance. The president, Mrs. F. N. Lynch, presided. Mrs. Margaret Jackson led the devotionals, an interesting program was presented in the interest of the Temple and the Ice Water fountain. The latter is being erected at St. Louis by the Union of the States comprised in the Louisiana purchase. Miss Josephine Lynch gave an instrumental selection on the piano. Dr. Lynch came in at the close of the program and was given an ovation. He gave a few words of encouragement and farewell, as it was on the eve of his departure on his journey across the sea. Ice cream and cake were served and a delightful social hour was enjoyed at which time old acquaintanceships were renewed and new ones were formed. A number of new members were enrolled. The company departed at a late hour, expressing themselves as having spent a pleasant and profitable afternoon and declaring Mrs. Stewart an ideal hostess.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

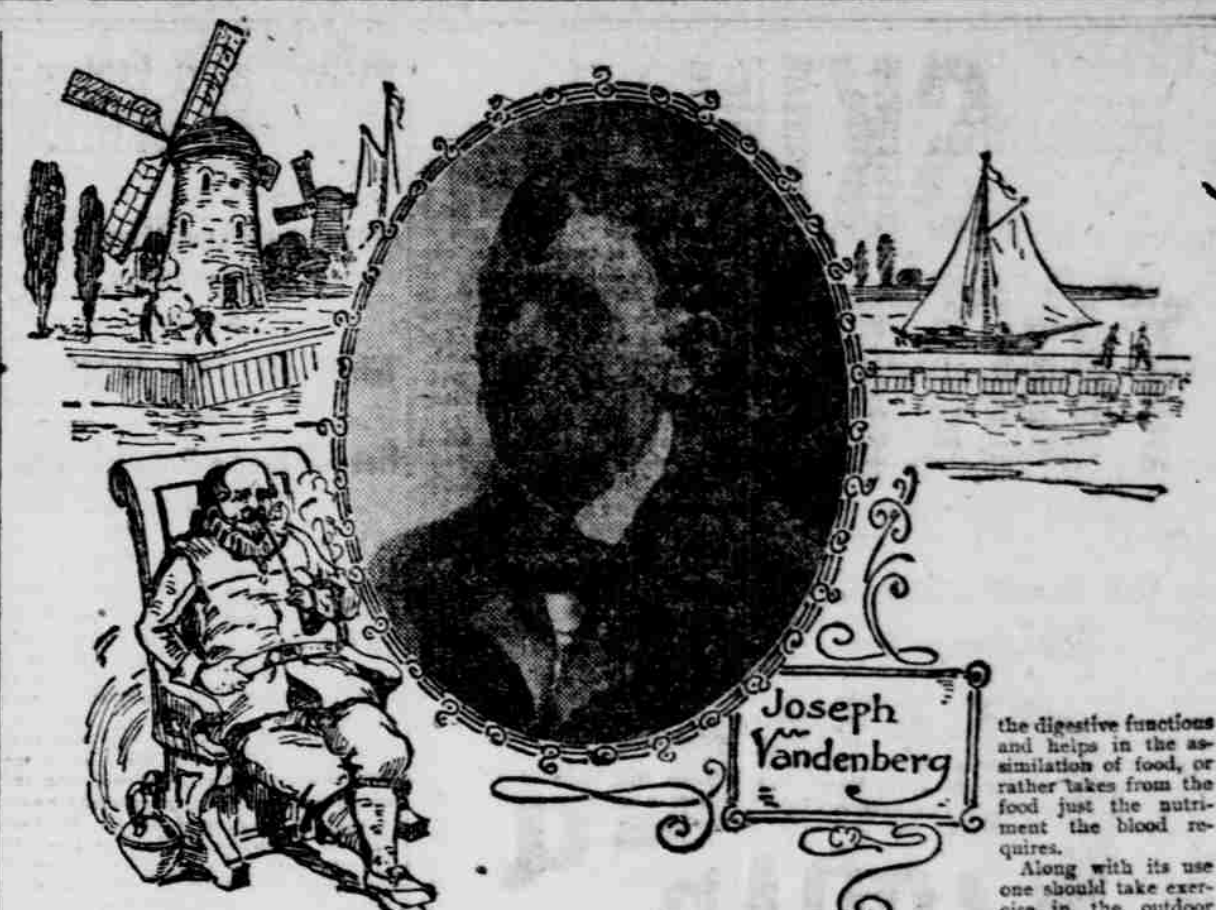

One of the most pleasant social events of the week was a surprise given in honor of Mrs. J. B. Taylor at her home, 128 N. Washington avenue last Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being her thirtieth birthday. The surprise was planned and successfully carried out by a few of her most intimate friends. After Mrs. Taylor recovered from the surprise, the afternoon was spent in progressive whist, the honors being awarded Mrs. L. L. Walker. Refreshments were served and the guests departed at a late hour, wishing Mrs. Taylor many pleasant birthdays to follow. Those invited were:

Mrs. G. M. Nellans, Mrs. E. E. Prohman, Mrs. J. J. Morrison, Mrs. J. M. Bridenstine, Mrs. J. E. Fiebleman, Mrs. J. H. Florence, Mrs. P. P. Fink, Mrs. L. L. Walker, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. J. W. Gordon, Mrs. J. J. Oster, Mrs. C. A. Stuart, Mrs. W. R. Kessler, Mrs. Cutler, Mrs. Gary, Mrs. T. B. Dyal, Miss Maude Peters, Blanche Williamson and Mrs. J. B. Taylor.

W. R. C. RECEPTION.

On Tuesday afternoon when the business session of the W. R. C. No. 40 was finished, the color-bearers repaired to the hall used by the Ladies of the G. A. R. and escorted them up to Garfield hall, as by previous arrangement, invitation and acceptance.

The reception which followed the address of welcome by the corps president, Mrs. Buckner, the response by Mrs. Lane, president of Caroline Harrison Circle, and a number of patriotic and sisterly the digestive functions and helps in the assimilation of food, or rather takes from the food just the nutrient the blood requires.

HE Old Dutch who first located on Manhattan were a sturdy race. They underwent all kinds of hardships, but the result of their work is the greatest city of our day—New York.

We owe it to the Hollanders—they were first to force the advantages of this port—with its beautiful land locked harbor—with a great river stretching into the interior. Since then descendants of this sturdy race have settled in all parts of the great West, and helped to make the country prosperous. Joseph Vandenberg, Treasurer of Outagamie Co. Holland Society, living at Appleton, Wis., thought of a sturdy frame, and apparently strong, was suddenly attacked with catarrh of the lungs. He relates his experience as follows:

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' brought me great relief, after I had suffered for years with lung trouble, which threatened each year to run into consumption. I tried many advertised medicines, and finally, the druggist advised me to try a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I found that before I had finished the first bottle there was a change for the better, and I gladly continued to use it. After four months' use my lungs were healed, my health was much better and I now feel that your medicine has saved my life."

therefore cannot say too much in its praise, and am pleased to give you this testimonial, as it may be the means of bringing to some one else as great an amount of benefit as I received from Dr. Pierce's medicine."

The time to use "Golden Medical Discovery" is when you suffer from Coughs, Bronchitis, Catarrh of Lungs, Asthma, Whooping-cough, Pneumonia, Laryngitis, Consumption.

The advantage of this preparation of Dr. Pierce's over all others for these distressing ailments is: First, it contains nothing to derange the stomach—most cough mixtures contain sugar or opiates, or narcotics that are harmful to the system. Second, The "Medical Discovery" is made from roots, herbs and bark, therefore contains nature's own remedy from the vegetable kingdom. Third, The "Discovery" contains no alcohol, therefore does not give false stimulation, nor drink up the red corpuscles in the blood.

A remedy which has enjoyed a grand reputation for the last third of a century is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, an alternative extract, taken from barks, roots and herbs, without the use of a particle of alcohol or narcotics. This medicine goes to the root of disease by imitating nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous force. This "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce cures of God's sunlight and air, and practice a mild breathing exercise each day. This "Medical Discovery" gives no false stimulation, because it does not contain alcohol or a narcotic. It helps digestion and the assimilation of such elements in the food as are required for the blood. Instead of a cod liver oil, against which the already sensitive stomach will declare open rebellion, this tonic has a pacifying action upon the sensitive stomach and gives to the blood the food elements the tissues require. It maintains nutrition by enabling one to eat, retain, digest and assimilate nutritious food. It overcomes gastric irritability and symptoms of indigestion, and in this way, fever, night-sweats, headaches, etc., are done away with. That is why "Golden Medical Discovery" is one of the best possible tonics in cases of bronchitis and consumption in its early stages, for it builds up the strength as well as soothes the cough. Many, many cases of bronchitis and incipient consumption have been cured by its use.
